

Secretary

Scott London, MD

Dr. London graduated from the University of Virginia Undergraduate and Medical School. Dr London trained at the Department of Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery at the University of Virginia Health Sciences Center where he published in such areas as treatment of advanced sinus disease and facial plastic reconstruction. He began the Cochlear Implant Program at Greater Baltimore Medical Center where he served as Director from 2001-2012. He served on the Board of Examiners for Audiologists, Hearing Aid Dispensers and Speech and Language Pathologists from 2010-2018 and is a past President of Maryland Society of Otolaryngology.

Dr. London is a board certified Ear Nose and Throat surgeon. He is a clinical instructor with the Department of Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgery at Johns Hopkins University and holds privileges at Greater Baltimore Medical Center and Carroll Hospital Center. He practices general otolaryngology with special interests in the treatment of sinusitis and nasal breathing disorders, as well as pediatrics, otology, and snoring.